First-floor units are the least expensive, because views might be encroached upon by a home in front of you. (Third-floor units have best views, especially buildings 4–8, 10 and 12.) An easy place to love. 2/2 units (1,270–1,554 sq. ft.) are $266–$550. 3/3 units (1,716–2,147 sq. ft.) are $397–$1,099. 3-night minimum.

116 units, a/c, pool, BBQ, spa, washer/dryer in unit, sauna, Wi-Fi, daily maid service. The interiors have nice furnishings, huge master bathrooms, pleasing layouts, good location and relaxing views across the golf course. Many of the units have been nicely updated, so ask for one. Some have very good ocean views. They have done a lot building maintenance recently, and the property was looking sharp on our visit. 1/2 units (1,300 sq. ft.) are $395–$550, 2/3 units (1,700 sq. ft.) are $515–$790. 3-night minimum. Basic grocery package available for an extra fee.

A REAL GEM

net access, BBQ, weekly maid. Most units overlook the ancient fishponds, creating an amazingly tranquil setting. Some units have ocean views as well. Buildings J, K and L often have nice sunset views. Many units have higher-end furnishings and some have been updated. 2- and 3-bedroom units are better. Most units have stairs leading to them—either up or down. There are two units available without stairs if you need them—one in building F and the other in building G. Master bathrooms are large. The complex is right next to the Mauna Lani Bay Hotel. Grounds are nicely groomed and mature. Even though this is an older property, it has been very well-cared for, and we still like it. 1/2 units (1,058–1,150 sq. ft.) are $356–$425, 2/3 (1,407–1,481 sq. ft.) units are $446–$575. 3-night minimum.

SOLID GOLD VALUE

hi-speed Internet access in some units, BBQ. Considering the caliber and the fact that it's in Kohala, this is a very good deal. Units are large and nicely furnished, the layout is pleasing, grounds are well-groomed, the bathrooms have nice, deep tubs. Ocean views aren't overwhelming—most are blocked by the Kolea resort or trees. But if you want a condo in Kohala, this is as close as you'll come to inexpensive yet pleasant. Buildings E & F are the best, A & B feel the closest to the road. 2/2 units (1,262–1,406 sq. ft. plus huge lanais) are $175. 3-night minimum.
